

SITE SAFETY CARD OPTIONS

PROGRESS

Ready to take your learning to the next level? Work towards our Health and Safety in Construction programme and achieve a Level 3 NZQA-recognised qualification

Complete any of the courses below to receive a FOUNDATION SITE SAFETY CARD

Foundation courses are designed for learners starting in the industry or those wanting to extend their foundation H&S knowledge. They cover entry level foundation H&S topics including keeping safe, controlling risk, basic site hazards and legal requirements.

- Foundation Passport Building Construction
2 credits
- Foundation Passport Consultants
2 credits
- Foundation Passport Civil
2 credits

Build on your Foundation Passport knowledge when it's time to renew your Site Safety card with one of these Passport Plus courses

- Passport Plus - Worker Health
3 credits
- Passport Plus - Tools and Plant
3 credits
- Passport Plus - Height
3 credits
- Passport Plus - Flexi
3 credits

Complete any of the courses below to receive a TECHNICAL SITE SAFETY CARD

Technical courses are designed for learners already in the industry. They cover practical technical knowledge and skills topics including electrical, first aid, harness, fall arrest systems, site-specific safety planning, and H&S representatives.

- First Aid Construction Safety
2 credits
Learners wanting to renew their First Aid Certificate can attend this course more than once
- Health and Safety Representative
9 credits
- Mental Health First Aid in Construction
2 credits
- Site-Specific Safety Planning
7 credits
- Safety Harness Systems
6 credits
- Advanced Safety Harness Systems
9 credits
Learners who supervise staff while working at height should attend this course
- Registered Electrical Workers
4 credits
On completion of this course, you will be eligible to renew your Electrical Workers Registration Board (EWRB) practicing license and First Aid/CPR

Complete any of the courses below to receive a LEADERSHIP SITE SAFETY CARD

Leadership courses are designed for learners responsible for onsite leadership, supervision, or those managing a team. They cover theoretical and practical topics including supervising workers, leading safety onsite, and accident investigation.

- Supervisor
10 credits
- Training and Supervising Workers
7 credits
- Accident Investigation and Prevention
7 credits
- Leadership in Safety
7 credits
- Risk Management
8 credits
- Health and Safety in Contracting
7 credits

Attend the forum to renew your GRADUATE CARD

- Continued Professional Development (CPD) Forum
Graduates of the Certificate in Construction Site Safety or Health and Safety in Construction programme may only attend the CPD Forum. Choose any of Site Safe's courses to renew your certificate card

Key:

-  Classroom
-  Online
-  Webinar + Online Modules
-  Classroom + Online Modules
-  Webinar

MAINTAIN/RENEW

Maintain your Site Safety Card by choosing the right course for your current role

- Certain training through Vertical Horizons renews your Site Safety Card. More info: sitesafe.org.nz/training/renewing-your-site-safe-access.
- Unit standards achieved from any Site Safe training will remain on your NZQA record of learning.
- Free Assignments, SiteWise and Safety Excellence for Leaders Workshops do not renew a Site Safety Card.

Need help?
Contact our customer service team
0800 SITE SAFE