HEALTH, SAFETY
& WELLBEING AWARDS
& GRADUATION

Award Entry Form

2023

AWARD INFORMATION

The Site Safe awards give national recognition to those who are making a difference in the New Zealand construction and wider industry. There are seven categories available for entry:

THE SAFETY INNOVATION AWARD SMALL TO MEDIUM BUSINESS

This award is for a site or company demonstrating the best new idea or initiative to drive improvements in health and safety systems or behaviours, address or manage a specific hazard or risk, create a design solution to address a problem, or to improve productivity.

THE SAFETY INNOVATION AWARD LARGE BUSINESS

This award is for a site or company demonstrating the best new idea or initiative to drive improvements in health and safety systems or behaviours, address or manage a specific hazard or risk, create a design solution to address a problem, or to improve productivity.

THE SAFETY LEADERSHIP AWARD SMALL, MEDIUM OR LARGE BUSINESS

This award is for a site or company where an initiative has been implemented that involves organisational leaders in driving health and safety performance through visible and active involvement in health and safety activities. This could include developing safety culture, making safety positive or demonstrating leadership at the highest level. This award is open to organisations of all sizes. Organisational leaders can be the CEO and senior managers in a large company through to the owner (or other person with significant influence) in an SME.

THE SAFETY CONTRIBUTION AWARD INDIVIDUAL

This award is for an individual who has demonstrated an outstanding contribution to health and safety in construction. This award acknowledges the individual who light the spark in other people's minds and inspire positive change and action in the area of health and safety.

THE SAFETY CONTRIBUTION AWARD SMALL TEAM

This award is for a small team who has demonstrated an outstanding contribution to health and safety in construction. This award acknowledges the team who light the spark in other people's minds and inspire positive change and action in the area of health and safety.

THE MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLBEING AWARD COMPANY, ORGANISATION, TEAM OR INDIVIDUAL

This award seeks to recognise a company, organisation, team or individual that has developed, implemented and championed outstanding approaches in supporting the mental health and wellbeing of construction workers, colleagues and friends.

THE YOUNG FUTURE LEADER AWARD INDIVIDUAL

This award seeks to recognise an individual who has demonstrated initiative and outstanding contribution to health and safety in construction, and potential young leader of the future.

SMALL TO MEDIUM BUSINESS = UP TO 50 EMPLOYEES
LARGE BUSINESSES = OVER 50 EMPLOYEES

WINNERS

Winners from each category will receive an award trophy and a $1,000 gift card from the award category sponsor.

Awards are presented at Site Safe's Evening of Celebration (which is held during March in Auckland), alongside Site Safe's graduation ceremony for those receiving the New Zealand Certificate in Workplace Health and Safety Practice.

JUDGING

Judging the awards will be undertaken by a panel made up of four individuals: an independent expert operating in the field of occupational health and safety in the construction industry, a construction industry representative, an employee representative and a Site Safe representative. The names of the judging panel and any discussion will remain confidential and no correspondence will be entered into.

The judges will be looking for those who demonstrate the following:

- Clearly demonstrated real benefits to health, safety and wellbeing
- Displayed real innovation with respect to health, safety and wellbeing (thinking outside the square)
- Encouraged others to be involved and buy into health, safety and wellbeing
- Ability for the initiative or idea to be adopted by others in the construction industry leading to continuous improvement in the sector.
- Made health, safety and wellbeing positive.
